

Wine Spectator

83

MARCHESI DE'
CORDANO

Pecorino Colline Pescaresi Diamine
2012

A crisp white, with light earth and herb accents to the melon, pink grapefruit and almond skin flavors. Drink now. 2,415 cases made. (Web Only)

WineSpectator.com

DIAMINE PECORINO
"COLLINEPESCARESI" I.G.T.

THE DETAILS

Typology: I.G.T.

Wine: White Type

Grapes: Pecorino

Alcoholic Strength: 13%

Color: Straw Yellow

Perfume: Floral and fruity bouquet, echoes of white melon and banana and jasmine flower

Flavor: Well balanced and harmonic, and smooth

Serving Temperature: 46 - 50

Accompanies: Shellfish and pasta dishes

Wine Spectator

89

MARCHESI DE'
CORDANO

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Aida 2010

A bit high-toned and sappy, with a streak of medicinal herb accenting the macerated plum and strawberry fruit. Hints of spice and cocoa powder and light tannins show on the tangy finish. Drink now through 2018. 6,665 cases made. (Jun 30, 2014)

WineSpectator.com

AIDA MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO
D.O.C

THE DETAILS

Typology: O.O.C.

Wine: Red Type

Grapes: Montepulciano

Alcoholic Strength: 13%

Color: Red

Perfume: Floral and fruity fragrance, with a hint of violet, cherry and plum

Flavor: Full structure, fruity and tannic, delicate and aromas of pears

Serving Temperature: 60 – 64

Accompanies: Fish stew, and soft cheeses

Wine Spectator

87

BENNATI

Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore
Soraighe 2011

Medium-bodied and balanced, with lightly juicy acidity and flavors of black cherry syrup, dried cranberry, dried herb and licorice snap. Drink now through 2017. 6,665 cases made. (Web Only)

WineSpectator.com

SORAIIGHE RIPASSO VALPOLICELLA
D.O.C.

THE DETAILS

Typology: DOC

Wine: Red Wine

Grapes: Valpolicella

Alcoholic Strength: 14%

Color: Intense ruby red

Perfume: Cherry wood, fruity with hints of toffee

Flavor: Smooth full body red, with subtle dry tannins

Serving Temperature: 55°

Accompanies: Red meats and wild game

Wine Spectator

89

MARCHESI DE'
CORDANO

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Trinità 2006

Hints of chocolate pudding and vanilla lend a sweet overtone to the blueberry and boysenberry fruit, balanced and well-meshed, with savory accents of dried mint and black olive. Fine tannins and ground spice show on the tangy finish. Drink now through 2019. 2,330 cases made. (Jun 15, 2014)

WineSpectator.com

TRINITA MONTEPULCIANO D.O.C.

THE DETAILS

Typology: D.O.C.

Wine: Red Type

Grapes: Montepulciano

Alcoholic Strength: 14%

Color: Ruby red

Perfume: Complex, continually changing, fruity and floral fragrance recalling small red fruits and dry red flowers

Flavor: Well balanced, warm, tannic tones elated by the spices given off the barrique

Serving Temperature: 65 - 68

Accompanies: Gnocchi with duck ragout, roasted lamb

Wine Spectator

87

BENNATI

Amarone della Valpolicella Elite 2008

A moderate red, lightly creamy, with a hint of loamy earth underscoring the blackberry coulis, licorice chew and floral notes. Drink now through 2017. 1,665 cases made. (Web Only)

WineSpectator.com

BENNATI SELECT AMARONE

THE DETAILS

Typology: DOCG

Wine: Red Wine

Grapes: Amarone

Alcoholic Strength: 13.5%

Color: Deep ruby red with hues of brown
Perfume: Toffee, leather notes of sweetness

Flavor: Big flavor, smooth with a lingering sweet like finish

Serving Temperature: 55

Accompanies: Roasted meats, truffles, and sharp cheeses

Wine Spectator

86

MARCHESI DE' CORDANO
Pinot Grigio Colline Pescaresi
Meraviglia 2012

Bright and tangy, this light-bodied white shows tangerine, apricot, lemongrass and zesty spice notes. Drink now. 750 cases made. (Web Only)

WineSpectator.com

PINOT GRIGIO "COLLINEPESCARESI" I.G.T.

THE DETAILS

Typology: I.G.T.

Wine: White Type

Grapes: Pinot Grigio

Alcoholic Strength: 13%

Color: Light Yellow

Perfume: Floral and fruity bouquet

Flavor: Well balanced and harmonic, and smooth

Serving Temperature: 46 - 50

Accompanies: Shellfish and pasta dishes

Wine Spectator

92

MARCHESI DE'
CORDANO

Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Santinumi
Riserva 2008

Bright and juicy acidity enlivens this big, burly red, with dense tannins fleshed out by layers of crushed blackberry, black cherry, grilled herb and mushroom, mocha and spice box flavors. Offers an appealing, expressive personality, showing balance and length. Drink now through 2024. 250 cases made. (Jun 30, 2014)

WineSpectator.com